Free Bankruptcy Legal Clinics Available

The United States Bankruptcy Court for the Northern District of California and the Bankruptcy Pro Bono Project are pleased to offer free legal clinics which provide limited legal advice to low-income individuals already involved in adversary proceedings without legal representation.

The clinics are available on a monthly basis in Contra Costa County, Oakland, San Francisco and San Jose. The clinics are staffed with volunteer bankruptcy attorneys and law students. A complete clinic schedule, along with information regarding services offered are available on the court's BPBP Clinic Calendar page.

The BPBP is a cooperative effort of the United States Bankruptcy Court of the Northern District of California and numerous Bay Area bar associations and non-profit groups. In addition to the bankruptcy court, BPBP members include the Northern District of California Bench-Bar Liaison; Bay Area Bankruptcy Forum; bankruptcy sections of the Bar Associations of San Francisco and Alameda counties; Volunteer Legal Services Program of the Bar Association of San Francisco; Alameda County Bar Association Volunteer Legal Services Corporation; Contra Costa County Bar Association; The Law Center (Contra Costa County); John F. Kennedy School of Law; the Contra Costa-Solano Center for Consumer Law and Self-Help; and the Pro Bono Project Silicon Valley.
